

Dear Applicant Families,

Thank you for your interest in Valor Classical Christian Academy. Decisions regarding your child(ren)'s education are extremely important, and we are honored that you would consider Valor. We have adopted an admissions policy that opens the school to families who are like-minded spiritually; who are supportive of our philosophy, objectives, and standards of education; and whose children meet enrollment expectations. Valor's purpose is to serve families who desire not simply a private education, but a distinctively classical Christian education for their child(ren).

Valor believes that Scripture is truly God's Word and, as such, it informs all our teaching practices. Because of this, we require that families who attend support our Statement of Faith. We also ask that, prior to applying, families review our Family Handbook, so they are familiar with our approach and policies. We know that the finest education happens when the goals of home, school, and church are aligned, and we desire that clarity for our students and our families.

We have assembled a leadership team that has deep experience in education, understands the intricacies of building and leading schools, and who shares a common passion for classical Christian education. We are committed to working well and pursuing excellence. That said, Valor is a new endeavor. Prospective families should consider that the initial years of a new school require a mix of prayer, flexibility, grace, and willingness to pitch in. It is a unique scenario but those that participate often reap the rewards of an invested and connected school community.

Valor is pleased to come alongside families to shape young people with an enduring education that cultivates wisdom, virtue, and service to Christ. We appreciate your interest in our school and look forward to learning more about your child(ren).

In Christ,

Valor Classical Christian Academy
Board of Directors
